

HOW to be a FRIEND!

Greetings!!

Last newsletter we learned about 1 letter in our FRIENDS Series. F taught us to Find Something in Common with future and current friends. Were you all able to write something down that you like to do so that maybe you could find someone with the same interests? This newsletter you are going to learn another tip to making friends and being a good friend. R – Respect Other People (Space, Property, Ideas). You also get to watch another great YouTube video. Have fun!

Sincerely,
-Your TDA School Counselors ☺

R Respect Other People (Space, Property, Ideas)

Treating others with respect can mean a lot of different things. Some ways to respect others is to accept people who are different than you. You are not going to always agree with your friends, and that is okay. It is okay to have different opinions, and you don't have to like all of the same things. Think of their feelings. Don't bully or hit them. Even when you are angry, don't yell at them or break their things. Use your word and talk things out when you have a disagreement.
