

HOW to be a FRIEND!

Welcome!

You are fast on your way to learning how to become a great friend! So far we have learned to Find something in common with others, and to Respect other people (space, property and ideas). Those are definitely two ways that are sure to help you get and keep friends. This newsletter, we are going to talk about the I in FRIENDS. Invite & Include Kids to Participate. Start thinking of ways you can do that in your own life. Let us know what you think ☺

Sincerely,

-Your TDA School Counselors ☺

I Invite & Include Kids to Participate

Have you ever seen a kid playing by themselves in a playground? How about sitting by themselves at lunch? Asking them to play or sit with you is a great way to make a new friend! Invite new friends over to hang out at your house. If you are having a party, try to include all of your friends so that you don't leave anyone out.
