

Respect

Character Education

In our last character education newsletter we highlighted trustworthiness. Do you remember what trustworthiness means?

Trustworthiness means being reliable, honest, a good friend and having courage.

Respect, the Golden Rule

As we continue to cover our 6 pillars that build good character, this time we are taking a look at respect. What is the Golden Rule? The Golden Rule is to treat others like you want to be treated.

R-E-S-P-E-C-T, find out what it means to me! What do you think respect means? If someone is respectful, what does that person

What does respect mean?

Treat others with respect; follow the Golden Rule

- Accepting people who are different from you.
- Use good manners, not bad language
- Think of other's feelings.
- Don't threaten, hit or hurt anyone
- Deal peacefully with anger, insults, and times when you don't get along with someone

Respect Do's and Don'ts

Respect Do's

- Treat everyone with respect by being polite.
- Be nice to people who are different than you.
- Be nice to everyone, not just some people.

Respect Don'ts

- Don't pick on, make fun of or bully others.
- Don't take advantage of other people.

"Respect yourself and others will respect you."

Be TRRFCC!

T R R F C C

Students can use this acronym to help them remember that people with good character are terrific:

T rustworthiness
R espect
R esponsibility
F airness
