

YOUR CHARACTER MATTERS

Responsibility

Do you remember what we have learned about Character in the past couple of months?

Remember that Character is doing what it is right even if no one is looking.

T is for Trustworthy - Being reliable, having courage, being a good friend and being honest.

R is for Respect - Treating others the way that you want to be treated.

You Are TRRFCC!

- T rustworthiness
- R espect
- R esponsibility
- F airness
- C aring
- C itizenship

This month we are learning about responsibility. How can you show someone that you are responsible?

Think Before You Act or Talk

Think about what could happen before you say or do something. Don't do or say anything that you will feel bad about.

Do Your Best

Do your work before you play and always keep trying to do the best that you can do. Follow through with what you say you are going to do. Don't take credit for things that other people do.

Read About It!

- Berenstain Bears Trouble at School by S. Berenstain
- Pearl's Promise by F. Asch
- Back Yard Angel by J. Delton
- I Double Dare You! by D. Lehman
- If You Had to Choose, What Would You Do? by S.M. Humphrey
- The Corn Grows Ripe by D. Rhoads

Fix Your Mistakes and Messes

Clean up after yourself. Don't blame others for something that you did.

Be A Good Role Model

Don't wait for someone to tell you to do the right thing. Think of things that you can do to help other people.
